FYI. Below is information OPPT provided yesterday in response to the following request from the German Embassy:

"After the verdict of the California court on Roundup, Embassy has been tasked with putting the verdict in the context of previous evaluations by US authorities. Would you be able to provide a summary of the most up-to-date evaluations of effects of Roundup on health and environment?"

OPPT would appreciate it if we would let them know of similar requests for information from other governments.

Subject: RE: Please provide input (by COB today if possible): Question from German Embassy on EPA's evaluation of Roundup

Good afternoon Rakhi,

Thank you for looping our office in on this request.

EPA's docket for glyphosate Docket ID: EPA-HQ-OPP-2009-0361 is available online here: <https://www.regulations.gov/docket?D=EPA-HQ-OPP-2009-0361> and includes EPA's registration review, draft human health and ecological risk assessments, and links to PDFs of 56 additional supporting documents.

Additionally, our office has a webpage that compiles all links to EPA web content pertaining to glyphosate which can be found here: <https://www.epa.gov/home/links-epa-web-content-about-glyphosate> as well as an overview of what glyphosate is/does which can be found on the EPA website at this link: <https://www.epa.gov/ingredients-used-pesticide-products/glyphosate>.

Let me know if you would like any additional clarification, or if OITA would like any additional assistance from our office in responding to these requests. If you are able to keep us aware of which other governments request this information from EPA, we would greatly appreciate it.

Regards,
Zoe

Hi Lance and Zoe,

Hope all is well!

See below for inquiry from the German Embassy here in D.C. requesting more information on EPA's evaluations of the health and environmental impacts of Roundup. Is there a short summary you can provide me or links we can share with the Embassy by COB today?

We anticipate this is the first of many similar requests we will be receiving from international partners. Our offices may need to work together to put together a short factsheet or summary if one is not already available. Copying in Brenda for her awareness.

Best regards,
Rakhi
